MISSIONARY SPEAKER AT RALLY SERVICE

Rev. Lawrence P. VanSlyke at First Church

Has Been Doing Missionary and Education Work in Mexico

A feature of the Rally Day program yesterday at the First Presbyterian church was an address by the Rev. Lawrence P. VanSlyke, former Geneva...

"I want to give you a few glimpses of the sort of thing a missionary can still do in Mexico in spite of restrictions and difficulties. One of my fellow missionaries is doing some very interesting work among university and high school students in Mexico City.

Mr. VanSlyke continued: "One night a few weeks ago I was invited to give an informal talk to a group of about 35 students gathered in the home of this missionary, most of them not connected with any church. My topic was the choice offered today between a materialistic interpretation of the Universe and the Christian interpretation. The idea being fostered in Mexico is that any religious view of the world is unscientific, and that only Marxian materialism is truly scientific. I talked for almost an hour, ending with an out-and-out statement of my own faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God."

The anti-religious wave has affected not only the cities, but has spread out in the country districts and even into remote Indian villages in the mountains...

Art Exhibition First of Series in New Gallery

An interesting art exhibition will be held in the gallery of the Chase Building on Putney street on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, September 28th to October 9th from 2 until 5 p. m.

The exhibit is made possible by the creation of the intimate gallery and Art Association of William Smith College which was established in 1935.

Coming as it does at this particular time, the exhibit will be of particular interest to the alumni and guests attending the inauguration of President William A. Eddy of Hobart College.

There are twenty-one water colors representing the artist in the local exhibit. They are landscape paintings and were done in several countries, including Africa, France, Northern Canada, and in the hills around the artist's present home near Elmira.

Referring to the exhibit, Norman Kent, head of the Art Department of William Smith College, states that "Mr. Hoftrup's painting is not of the factual type but rather a sensitive interpretation of life and atmosphere. His design and organization is always well constructed and while in many forms and broadly painted, the power of their suggestions is distinguished."

Many of Mr. Hoftrup's works have been exhibited in the International Shows.

Riding Season Is Opened With Treasure Hunt

Fourteen local riding enthusiasts held their first treasure hunt of the Fall riding season yesterday afternoon beginning at 3:30 o'clock from the Wilson's Geneva Riding School on the White Springs Road.

When the party had assembled, Sam Calabrese of the Green Meadow Riding Stable read aloud the first clue. Clues were taken from recent newspaper clippings in the Geneva Daily Times. The first clue was that of a birthday party, another was a classified advertisement. Other notices included a primary election story, an obituary notice, a sale of property, a local raid, a fire story, and a final edition story, which announced that the prize was within 100 feet of the readers.

After all had searched the adjoining ground and brush, the prize, which was a silver tie or scarf pin in a stirrup and strap design, was found and won by Miss Dorothy Spear.

Those taking part in the treasure hunt were: the Misses Lola Cole, Sylvia Daykin, Dorothy Spars, Mrs. Lillie Hobick and Mrs. Anne Kernan of Geneva; the Misses Helen Hunt and Gladys Yells of Waterloo; Mrs. George Kinne of Penn Yan; Jack Senesky, F. J. Conboy, Jr., M. Calabrese, Bob McChayne, J. Iorio and M. Mickelson, all of Geneva.
